

Good Tidings

Fall 5 Senses DETECTIVE

Small Observations Make Big Stories!

Use your five senses to find evidence of fall.
Look, listen, smell, touch, and (safely) taste.
Write or draw what you discover!

EXPLORE OBSERVE DESCRIBE BE A FALL DETECTIVE!

SIGHT

What do you see in fall?

- ☐
- ☐
- ☐
- ☐

Use descriptive words like:
colorful, bright, golden, red, orange, yellow, brown, crunchy, changing, beautiful

SOUND

What do you hear in fall?

- ☐
- ☐
- ☐
- ☐

Use descriptive words like:
crunchy, rustling, whooshing, chirping, squeaking, honking, quiet, windy

SMELL

What do you smell in fall?

- ☐
- ☐
- ☐
- ☐

Use descriptive words like:
fresh, earthy, smoky, sweet, woody, crisp, pumpkin, spicy

TOUCH

What can you feel in fall?

- ☐
- ☐
- ☐
- ☐

Use descriptive words like:
rough, smooth, bumpy, crunchy, soft, cool, damp, dry, crisp

TASTE

What can you taste in fall?

- ☐
- ☐
- ☐
- ☐

Use descriptive words like:
sweet, tart, crisp, juicy, spicy, warm, delicious

Case Closed! My Best Fall Evidence

Write about your favorite thing you discovered.
Use at least three descriptive words!

-
-
-
-

As a Fall Detective, I can...

- ☐ Use my five senses
- ☐ Observe carefully
- ☐ Use descriptive language
- ☐ Notice details
- ☐ Appreciate nature!

Good Tidings

Every Season Brings a New Reason to Look a Little Closer!

